*Campsite 3 is set aside for Scouts and leaders who need power for medical equipment and level ground for limited mobility. If you would like to be considered for campsite 3 please list any physical limitations that reflect the need for the site. This information will determine who has priority to use the site (all information is kept private): _____

The deposit to reserve a campsite is $100. Make checks payable to Blue Grass Council and include your check or payment information with this form. Reservations are not guaranteed without payment. If we do not receive your reservation deposit by March 25, your campsite may be given to another unit who has paid their deposit. Deposit will be applied to your total camp balance, and will not be rolled over to 2025. Any overpayments will be refunded at the end of the summer camp season. The campsite deposit fee is non-refundable.

Minimum number of campers to a site is 25. If your troop cannot meet the minimum number of campers, you may have to share a campsite with one or more troops. The Camp Director also reserves the right to move smaller units to other campsites to accommodate larger units.

*****Occupancy is two people per tent. Please do not set up one to a tent unless you have brought your own. Exceptions to this are uneven numbers or male / female coed leadership.
